

The Benefits of Compound Feed

- Performance - what is fed works, animals are healthy and perform.
- Convenience - what, when and where it is required with no extra work.
- Consistent - nutritionally balanced, accurate blending and mixing.
- Efficiency - no wastage and no selective eating by the animal.
- Economy - no extra labour, machinery, mixing or storage costs.
- Quality - ingredients are carefully selected and controlled.
- Traceable - every aspect is documented, assured and fully labelled.
- Service - efficient ordering and delivery service, no time lost.
- Nutrition - expert knowledge, experience and technology.
- Value - all adds up to excellent value for money .

Balanced compound feed is excellent value for money, convenient and time efficient.

Managing grass properly and making quality grass silage increases profitability.